

Networking Workshop for Early & Mid-Careers Women in Regional Studies and Regional Science

Saturday 8th June 2019, Santiago de Compostella, Spain

Programme Draft

- 09.00-09.30 Welcome coffee
- 09.30-09.45 Welcome and Introduction (Franziska Sielker and Sally Hardy)
- 09.45-10.00 Sally Hardy
Leadership Skills and the three big challenges for RSA (VAT, Brexit and Plan S)
- 10.00-11.00 Professor Dr Jannika Mattes, Carl von Ossietzky University of Oldenburg, Germany
Career paths and experiences: How to have approach tenure and career planning (negotiating tenure, applying for tenure, experiences from Germany)
- 11.00-11.30 Coffee break
- 11.30–12.00 Alex Holmes
How to get impact on your publications (Use of social media, choice of the right outlet,...)
- 12.00-13.00 Lunch
- 13.00-15.00 Dr Maria Luz Loureiro García, University of Santiago de Compostela, Spain
World café format
moderated group discussions
How to have difficult conversations (asking for a promotion, a salary raise, or for administrative support, how to negotiate flexible working etc)
How to deal with disappointment (not getting promoted, not getting a raise, not getting support ... getting rejected from a journal, having horrid referees reports etc – what are the coping strategies for both asking and receiving)
- 15.00-15.30 Coffee break
- 14.30-16:00 Dr Franziska Sielker, University of Cambridge, UK
Networking between participants and discussion on Research interests (presentation of individual research, experiences in approaching research, plans for the next year, challenges in conducting research, prioritising)
- 16.00 End of workshop