The Belt and Road Initiative as Epochal Regionalisation

Xiangming Chen, Trinity College, USA and Fudan University, Shanghai with Julie Tian Miao, University of Melbourne, Australia and Xue Li, Fudan University, Shanghai

Series: Regional Studies Policy Impact Books

Through a new framework and three case studies, the book examines the BRI's impacts on globalisation, urbanisation and development via the China-Europe Freight Train, the paired construction of a new city and railway across the China-Laos borderland and the port-park-city development corridor between Djibouti and Ethiopia. The comparative analysis and evidence guide the book to advance policy recommendations for targeted stakeholders that can potentially turn the BRI into a global public good with greater benefits and fewer risks.
