Questioning Planetary Illiberal Geographies

Territory, Space and Power

Edited by Jason Luger

Series: Regions and Cities

This book engages with current debates on 'planetary urbanization' and the nature of urban political theory, but notably, considers the implications of illiberalism on space, territory, and power. It draws on diverse empirical case studies from China, the United States, India, South Korea, and Singapore in this context. Such a focus is timely, as illiberalism (across various settings and terrains) is producing, and embedded in, increasingly complex, hybrid, multi-scalar, non-linear and globally networked flows. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Territory, Politics, Governance.
